

” Interspiro shall be the leading supplier of respiratory equipment to fire-fighters and professional divers. Every business deal shall be a recommendation for future Interspiro business deals.

Interspiro is continuously working to reduce and prevent any environmental impact from transports, chose of materials and consumption of energy both locally and globally.

We will reach our goals by continuously improving the management system and by the choice of suppliers, material innovative design and by utilizing qualified personnel.

Interspiro will comply with all applicable legislation and relevant requirements. High and consistent quality, continuously improved as we learn from monitoring our processes and the feedback from customers, contributes towards the profits that serve as the foundations for our future”.